President Makes Triumphal Entry Into Paris Today

PARIS (AP) — President Eisenhower and President Charles de Gaulle began their conference in Paris today in a "good and encouraging atmosphere."

They both described the first talks in that manner White House Press Secretary James Hagerty said.

Hagerty told correspondents that Eisenhower will leave the U. S. Embassy one hour early Thursday for the chateau at Rambouillet, where he will meet with de Gaulle. The chateau, built for Marie Antoinette, is where Eisenhower is spending the night.

For the same reason, Hagerty said, Eisenhower will not hold a news conference at the end of the discussions here.

Hagerty said "it would be safe to assume" that the problems of Algeria and NATO would come up during the talks.

He said preliminary discussions might have been held when the two heads of state met this morning.

However, Hagerty said, except for interpreters, it was a private one-hour talk in de Gaulle's office with no one else present.

The President made a happy and triumphant entry into Paris, riding beside De Gaulle.

Crowds estimated at half a million jammed the center of the city, cheering and shouting as the World War II leaders drove past in an open car, on their way to conferences crucial to the Western Alliance.

It was a greeting reminiscent of the day in 1944 when Eisenhower was cheered as liberator of Paris. Officials and newsmen said the turnout appeared greater than that for Eisenhower's arrival in London.

Eisenhower is the first American president to pay a state visit to France since Woodrow Wilson came after World War I.

And France greeted him with all the pomp and ceremony she could muster—a booming 101-gun salute, blaring bands and a squadron of 64 white-gloved motorcycle escorts flanking the presidential car.

A rainbow of red, white and blue blanketed Le Bourget Airport, where Eisenhower landed after a 55-minute jet flight from London.

From the moment of their reunion at the airport, Eisenhower and de Gaulle exchanged warm and animated conversation although both are awkward in the other's language.

They got down to business just after noon at a luncheon conference at de Gaulle's Elysee Palace.

There were 29 guests at the luncheon, among them Secretary of State Christian A. Herter and French Foreign Minister Maurice Couve de Murville.

William Marcus Bridges, aged 74, a hotel clerk from Jacksonville, Fla., died unexpectedly here yesterday at the home of a sister.

Mrs. J. W. Story. He had been visiting here since Sunday.

He is also survived by another sister, Mrs. Thomas F. Roberts of Atlanta, Ga.

The body will be returned to Jacksonville, Fla., today for burial. Local arrangements were in charge of Oakcrest Funeral Service.

Here are tentative holidays which Hope Public Schools will take during the year: AFA Convention on November 5-6; Thanksgiving on November 26; Christmas, December 25; January 4 and Easter Holidays April 13 through 15.

HOPE, Ark. (AP) — A union drive to organize 2,500 Arkansas Highway Department maintenance workers began today in Hope.

The national AFL-CIO sent Phil Wells, an organizer from the Tulsa, Okla., regional office to help the drive, Ricky Warren an Arkansas union officer said.

Warren is the executive of Arkansas Council 38, American Federation of State, County and Municipal Employees.

He said workers in the Hope area would be invited to a meeting to form a local union. He said the Council hopes to charter a local in each of the five Highway Department divisions.

Figures Polio Epidemics Will Continue

NEW YORK (AP) — The head of the National Foundation said yesterday polio epidemics will continue to hit the United States for years—mainly because of public apathy toward the Salk vaccine.

Basil O'Connor, the Foundation president, made the statement as the number of persons stricken by the disease continued to mount.

The Foundation said that by Aug. 22 there had been a total of 3,436 polio cases this year as compared with 2,122 in 1958.

In the same period of 1953 there were 11,002 cases, 929 of them paralytic.

There were 406 new cases, 205 paralytic, in the week ending Aug. 22, as compared with 309 cases, 154 paralytic in the same week of 1958.

The Foundation's annual report for 1958 showed 98 million Americans had not received Salk vaccine at the end of last year, including 13,000,000 under 20 years old.

"The people of America have the means at hand for wiping out this terrible disease," O'Connor said. "Many millions have availed themselves of it. From a comparative standpoint, the record has been good beyond all precedent."

Yet, for the full realization of our hopes, it has not been good enough," O'Connor added.

Safe Driving Films Are Available

In cooperation with a well known manufacturer of automobiles, a series of free-on-loan films on safety driving and also safety in plants is being made available for teachers of Hempstead, Little River, and other counties of southwestern Arkansas. It was stated in Hope Monday by W. L. Shaddix, a former teacher of Alabama, who represents the Southern States Forestry Commission, Inc., Birmingham 5, Ala., and which office will send full details to anyone interested. Mr. Shaddix stated while in the Star office, with the accident visual aids, the Commission also provides a series of forest and game education movies, and also a series on science suitable for the high school grades.

Famous Songwriter Dies at Age of 80

LAGUNA BEACH, Calif. (AP) — The man who wrote baseball's own song—"Take Me Out to the Ball Game"—died Tuesday night. He was Jack Norworth, 80, song writer, actor and sports fan—once known as "the King of Vaudeville."

He died of a heart attack at his home in this seaside resort.

17-Year-Old Gang Chief in N. Y. Slaysings

NEW YORK (AP) — Police picked up three youths today and said one of them said he was the emcee of "Dracula" who led an attack in which two 16-year-old boys were stabbed to death Sunday.

"Dracula" earned his nickname because he wore a nurse's dark blue cape, which made him look like the vampire of horror stories and movies.

Police said the youth identified himself as Sal Agnon, of Brooklyn.

Police said he did not admit the fatal slayings but said he "cut somebody" during the attack.

Police said three cruising patrolmen spotted three suspicious-looking youths shortly after 2 a. m. today in the Bronx. First the officers collared Agnon who, they said, had a knife on him. Then they picked up the other two.

Four youths have already been charged with homicide in the slayings and another five youths have been accused of manslaughter. Police said all three boys were stabbed to death Sunday.

COMMUNIST-LED RIOTING BREAKS OUT IN INDIA

CALCUTTA, India (AP) — Calcutta's streets were littered with glass today following a rioting late Tuesday in which seven persons were killed and 30 hurt.

Street cars and buses were not running. Many of the vehicles were turned by rioters protesting the Bengal state government's food policies.

No new incidents were reported today.

Violence erupted in various parts of the city Tuesday after clashes between police and a procession of 10,000 students. They were protesting the use of clubs and tear gas Monday to disperse food agitators.

The food campaign, launched by the Communist and Forward Bloc parties, has been described by the government as a reaction to the dismissal of the Communist government in Kerala State.

The state government claims the price of food grains is no higher than in other states.

Communists and other left-wing parties allege that the government's recent withdrawal of a food price control order helped hoarders and put prices beyond the reach of the poor man.

NEW DELHI, India (AP) — Prime Minister Nehru said Parliament today that India's defense constant is continuing unchanged despite a rift between Defense Minister V. K. Krishna Menon and Lt. Gen. K. S. Thimayya, the army commander.

Nehru said Thimayya had resigned Monday in a dispute over the promotion of an army officer but had withdrawn his resignation at the Prime Minister's request.

The Prime Minister gave full backing to Krishna Menon, long one of his closest and most controversial advisers on foreign policy.

"Civil authority must remain supreme," Nehru declared.

This appeared to put at rest reports that Krishna Menon would be removed from the Cabinet or shifted to another post. Nehru gave no indication that the defense minister had offered to resign, as high sources in the ruling Congress party has reported.

Nehru rebuked Thimayya for resigning at a time when India's borders were in a state of anxiety.

Thimayya has been commander of the army since May 1957.

The Prime Minister made no mention of the commanders of the air force and navy, who had been reported resigning with Thimayya.

Appropriation Bill Veto Upheld By Single Vote

By WILLIAM F. ARBOGAST

WASHINGTON (AP) — The invincibility of President Eisenhower's vetoes faces an acid test today when the House votes on whether to knock down the veto of the big "pork barrel" appropriations bill.

Congress never has overridden an Eisenhower veto. There have been 144 of them in 6 1/2 years.

House Democratic leaders claimed it would be different this time. They said they had the votes to override.

The $1,215,477,930 appropriation bill provides financing for several hundred public works projects in just about every congressional district. Most of them are river and harbor and flood control jobs.

For years it has been known as the "pork barrel" bill and has been a congressional favorite because of its popularity in the home districts.

President Eisenhower vetoed it last week because it provided funds for 67 projects in 32 states for which his budget program had made no provision. It exceeded his money requests by about 30 million dollars.

Seven of Eisenhower's direct or indirect vetoes have come this year.

It takes a two-thirds vote of members present to override a veto and enact a law over the President's objection.

The House, an originator of the bill, gets first crack at the "pork barrel" measure. If it fails to muster the two-thirds vote, the bill will go to the Senate.

Confident House Democratic leaders figured on losing few, if any, of the 223 Democratic votes and on picking up quite a few Republican ballots.

Republican leaders pitched their plea to their 153 members on party loyalty and "fiscal responsibility." Some of them had urged the President not to veto the bill because it involves projects in many Republican districts and might adversely affect the political future of GOP incumbents.

Dollarway May Open Schools by Oct. 1

PINE BLUFF, Ark. (AP) — The Dollarway School Board hopes to open its three schools by about Oct. 1. Board President Lee Parham said yesterday.

Parham added, however, that a final opening date would depend on when a decision is handed down by the U. S. Eighth Circuit Court of Appeals on Dollarway's appeal of an integration order. A hearing is scheduled Sept. 21.

The Board postponed opening of all three of its schools from Sept. 8 until after the appeals court ruling. Parham said the Board hopes for a decision within a week after the hearing.

Federal District Judge Axel J. Beck ordered three grades admitted to the white Dollarway School. The District appended the order, contending it did not permit use of state pupil placement laws.

Beck held the laws constitutional in their face, but ruled the Dollarway Board had used them to avoid integration.

Judgeships Are Confirmed

Young, of Pine Bluff, will be judge for the Eastern District of Arkansas. Henley, now on the Eastern District bench, will assume a roving judge's post.

Russians Like

The Russians were impressed by our jazz, however. The tried and true Communist considered it decadent.

"The thing which caused the most disappointment to Russians who visited our exhibit was the fact that they could not purchase records or tape recordings. When I mentioned that some of the equipment was to be sold after the Exposition the Russians so informed would remark, 'then the Government will get it.'"

The Institute of High Fidelity Manufacturers, a non-profit organization of 120 leading manufacturers of high fidelity components, supplied equipment for four component high fidelity systems and a static display in the Glass Pavilion. The working displays include a stereophonic high fidelity system in the Jungle Gym and high fidelity systems for the fashion show area, outdoor listening area and the children's playground at the rear of the model home.

The average Russian regards American stereophonic high fidelity components as dream equipment for the future, was the view expressed by Mr. Davis.

"The Russians' understanding of technical terms and of basic engineering is outstanding," Mr. Davis said. "Many that I talked with read American technical journals such as those of the AFS, IRE, AIEE and Acoustical Society of America. Even our high fidelity magazines are carefully perused for useful material. However, much of the terminology vernacular is in the German."

Commenting on the Russians' reaction to the demonstration of the equipment Mr. Davis said that "the average Russian tends to pass judgment on the equipment only after hearing it operate in excess of 120 db. Several times when the system was left operating for a few minutes without the guide in attendance a Russian would crawl out of the second story of the Jungle Gym framework and turn the system up to full volume. The Russian engineers said the system had the lowest distortion they ever heard."

Government Troops Fall Back in Laos

By FRED WATERS

SAM NEUA, Laos (AP)—Patrol troops, supported by regular troops from Communist North Viet Nam, launched a coordinated attack in northeastern Sam Neua Sunday and captured four towns.

The outnumbered government forces are drawing back on a 35-mile front toward military headquarters.

The attack along the Nam Ma River was at one point supported by 165 mm howitzers evidently fired from inside North Viet Nam, Laotian officers said.

Patrol troops, which included Communist organizations which ruled this province lapped from us and there was widespread disappointment at not being able to purchase records. Several Russians found ways to bring in tape machines and copy our jazz programs and many others gave us tape and asked that we make copies for them. We found that the Soviet magnetic tape available to the public is of poor quality. The Russians maneuvered at our mylar tape and many wanted samples to take with them."

Mr. Davis said that almost every Russian he spoke to that was a jazz fan said he listened to the Voice of America jazz broadcasts. "They complained that the VOA broadcasts were of poor quality," he said. "They didn't realize that the 'poor quality' was caused by Soviet jamming and not a result of atmospheric conditions and poor signal."

Not all the Russians were impressed by our jazz however. According to Mr. Davis, the tried and true Communist considered it decadent.

On a visit to the Soviet Exhibition for Culture and Achievement, Mr. Davis said that he saw and heard a demonstration of a packaged stereo system with two separate speakers. He said that the quality was very poor and he saw nothing comparable to the set offered in local stores which he visited.

"One of the questions most asked at the American exhibit," Don Davis revealed, "was 'how much does it cost?' He explained that because of this the unprecedented act of putting price tags on all exhibits is just being completed. It reminded Mr. Davis of a remark made by a Soviet engineer who in discussing his country's exhibit at the New York Coliseum complained: 'My government sent me over to show Americans the quality of our goods. Instead all I get are questions on 'how much does it cost?' Americans just don't seem to be interested in quality.'" in northern Laos until two years ago.

Brig. Gen. Ouane Rathikone, Laotian army commander, said it appeared that at least 80 per cent of the attackers were Vietnamese (North Vietnamese) or Thai tribesmen trained in North Viet Nam.

The government troops were reported falling back to a defense line between the Nam Ma River and Sam Neua town.

The commander in northern Laos, Brig. Gen. Amkha Soukivong, estimated there are now the equivalent of two North Viet Nam battalions inside Sam Neua province. The Nam Ma River valley, garrisoned mainly by government irregulars, fell in less than one hour, reports said. There were no radios in any of the captured villages.

"All our Nam Ma River posts have fallen," Gen. Amkha said. "Patrol troops have largely controlled the belt of territory between the Nam Ma River and the Vietnamese frontier."

Former Radio Officials Deny Accusations

WASHINGTON (AP)—Three former Mutual Broadcasting System officials have denied federal accusations that they accepted $50,000 to broadcast Dominican Republic propaganda disguised as news.

A federal grand jury indicted the trio here Tuesday. They were charged with failing to register as agents for the Dominican Republic and with conspiring to keep Mutual from registering. The money allegedly was given them around last Feb. 6.

The indictments did not indicate if the network actually did broadcast any propaganda for the Dominican Republic. Generalissimo Rafael Trujillo, a key figure in the present Caribbean unrest, is the Dominican strongman.

Two of the officials—Alexander L. Guterman and Garland L. Culpepper Jr.—resigned from Mutual within a week after they accepted the money, the federal grand jury charged. The third, Hal Roach Jr., left Mutual about a month and a half later.

Guterman, an international financier in trouble with the federal government on several other questions involving money matters, was president of Mutual. Roach was board chairman and Culpepper a director.

To Build Missile Facilities in State

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Army Engineers today announced award of a contract to build strategic missile facilities at the Blytheville Air Force Base.

The contract went to Ben White & Sons of Blytheville, who submitted a low bid of $685,752 on Aug. 11.

The project includes construction of a one-story steel structure with 32,890 square feet of floor space and two smaller one-story temporary buildings.

The work, which must be completed in 225 days, also calls for air conditioning, heating and sprinkler systems and exterior finishing.

Rights Action Threat to Adjournment

By JACK BELL

WASHINGTON (AP)—Senate action on civil rights legislation appeared today to be posing the biggest threat to an adjournment of Congress next week.

Party leaders gave every sign of confidence that a half dozen other voting issues can be compromised before a prospective Sept. 12 adjournment date. But the fate of politically explosive civil rights proposals remained in doubt.

Sen. Everett M. Dirksen of Illinois, Republican leader, forecast Senate passage of what he called a "skeletonized" bill against which Southern Democratic opponents might complain loudly but not at such great length as to delay adjournment.

Democratic Leader Lyndon B. Johnson of Texas obviously was not quite so hopeful. But he said associates he expects motions to be made to bring the civil rights issue before the Senate and hopes that some legislation can be passed.

Dirksen said he hopes a bill can be passed continuing the life of the Civil Rights Commission, directing the preservation of voting records, providing for federal schooling of children of service closed to avoid integration and making it a federal offense to cross a state line to escape prosecution for a bombing.

Southerners might be willing to accept all but the school provision without a last-ditch fight. They have made it clear they will battle to the end any mention of school integration in such legislation.

Hearing on Rates Underway

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Kansas Commerce Commission today opened a hearing on speed loss of business by 15 railroads for a 23 per cent increase in interstate freight rates.

One firm — The Rock Road Co. of Shreveport — the increase on goods shipped in Nevada County, Ark. — include the Missouri Pacific, Frisco, Louisiana and St. Louis-Southern.

Notice

Mrs. R. L. Gosnell will start her regular piano classes Oct. 1.

Circle 6 WSCS will not have a regular meeting in Sept. There will be a short business session on Monday, Sept. 14 immediately following the union meeting at the church.

Duplicate Bridge Club Meets Monday

Miss Elizabeth Bridwell and Luther Hollamon were the first place couple at the Duplicate Bridge Club play on Monday, August 31. Placing second were Mrs. John Vesey and Mrs. R. T. White.

Tying for third position were Mrs. Harold Brents and Mrs. E. P. Young, Jr., and Mrs. Bill Routh and Mrs. Ed Ogran. There were five couples of players, including one out-of-town guest, Mrs. Idus Murphy of Athens, Ohio.

Rainbow Girls Elect New Officers

Newly elected Worthy Advisor of the local Rainbow Girls is Caryl Joy Myers. At the election on August 31 at the Masonic Hall, other officers chosen were Sharon Foster, Worthy Associate Advisor; Cindy Forster, Charity; Dorothy Smith, Hope; and Pam Aslin, Faith.

From several points in the state three Grand Officers visited the local Rainbow Girls on August 19 and they made three appointments. Sharon Foster was appointed Grand Page for the Grand Assembly to be held in Little Rock in June, 1960. Caryl Joy Myers and Sue Ann Smith were appointed Grand Choir Members for the Assembly.

A picnic and swimming party were held on August 19 with 30 participating including the Grand Officers, local Rainbow Girls, and several members from Prescott.

Mrs. Joe Hampton Honored With Pink and Blue Shower

Mrs. L. J. Hampton assisted by Mrs. Eugene Collins entertained with a pink and blue shower complementing Mrs. Joe Hampton. The Hampton home was beautifully decorated with arrangements of summer flowers placed at vantage points.

The honoree was presented a clever corsage by the hostess. Games were enjoyed by the group with prizes going to Mrs. Curtis Atkins, Mrs. C. J. Rowe and Mrs. Calvin Hare.

Gifts were presented to the honoree in a bassinette.

Refreshments were served to 30 guests.

Doris Helen Huckabee Don Alfred Hightower Exchange Vows

Miss Doris Helen Huckabee, daughter of Mrs. Inez Huckabee, and Don Alfred Hightower, son of Mrs. Syble Hightower of Gillett, were united in marriage on August 30 at the Temple Baptist Church of Little Rock.

The Rev. M. E. Childress, pastor, performed the double-ring ceremony. Nuptial music was provided by Mrs. Frances Elrod, organist, and Mrs. Reba Johnson, vocal soloist, both of Little Rock. Mrs. Johnson sang "Wither Thou Goest," "Always," and "The Lord's Prayer."

The altar was decorated with greenery, baskets of white gladioli, and white candles. The tapers were lighted by Miss Hazel Hightower of Gillett, sister of the bridegroom, and Miss Ginny Bates of Little Rock.

Given in marriage by Henry Lee Bowden, the bride wore a full-length gown of white satin, tulle, and lace. It had a low, scalloped neckline trimmed with iridescent sequins. The long sleeves came to points over the hands, and the full skirt swept into a brush train. Her finger-ring veil fell from a tiara enhanced with pearls and sequins.

The bride's only jewelry was a single strand of pearls, a gift of the bridegroom. She carried a bouquet of stephanotis centered with a white orchid.

The bride's maid of honor was her cousin, Miss Bobbie Ren Garrett. Miss Ann Hightower of Gillett, sister of the bridegroom, and Mrs. Kinard Young were the bridesmaids. They were dressed identically in gowns of gold peau de soie. The full-skirted frocks were gathered on the shoulders to form abbreviated sleeves. Their pearl-trimmed bandeaus and lace masks were also gold, and they carried bouquets of bronze daisy mums.

David Meador of Fisher Springs was the best man for the bridegroom. Ushers were Joel Williams of Little Rock and Tommy Dick Whiting of Monticello.

Mrs. Huckabee mother of the bride, wore a royal blue jersey dress with royal and black accessories. The bridegroom's mother, Mrs. Hightower, wore a figured dress with black and white accessories. Each had a corsage of white carnations.

A reception followed in the church parlor. The bride's table was decorated with white gladioli and white candles. Individual cakes were served the guests by the bridesmaids.

Mrs. Henry Bowden had charge of the bride's book. Wedding guests from Hope were Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Garrett and Mrs. Roscoe Bowden.

For travel the bride wore a green sheath dress with matching jacket and brown accessories. She pinned the orchid from her wedding bouquet at her shoulder. After a short wedding trip Mr. and Mrs. Hightower are at home at 211 South Clay in Magnolia. Mr. Hightower will be a senior at Southern State College this school term.

Births

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Bolding of El Dorado announce the arrival of a son on August 31. The child weighed 6 lbs., 3 ozs. His maternal grandparents are Elder and Mrs. C. L. Roberts, while the paternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Bolding of Huttig.

Mr. and Mrs. I. J. Sutton, Jr. of Lake Jackson, Tex., are the parents of a 6 lb., 5 oz. daughter. She was born August 31 and has been named Rebecca Lynn. Maternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Valentine, and the paternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Sutton, Sr.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Franklin, Jr. of Huntsville, Ala., announce the arrival of a son on August 20 in Huntsville. The young man weighed 6 lbs., 12 ozs., and has been named Carter Owen Franklin. Mr. and Mrs. B. D. Franklin are the paternal grandparents.

Polio Toll Reaches 167 in Arkansas

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Arkansas' 1959 total of polio cases has reached 167, but a health official says the situation is improving.

Fourteen new cases of the disease were reported to the state Health Department last week. It was announced yesterday.

Dr. A. M. Washburn, director of the department's Division of Communicable Disease Control, said 10 of the new cases were of the paralytic type, and that seven of these victims had received no Salk vaccine.

Washburn said the polio situation was "improving markedly." He said 86 cases were reported in August but 18 were carryovers from July when a high of 69 cases were recorded.

Urges U.S. Buy Hens for Schools

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. J. W. Fulbright (D-Ark.) has urged the Agriculture Department to purchase breeder hens for use in the school lunch program.

A large surplus of broiler breeders, he said, has resulted in an oversupply of broilers with a resulting decline on the market.

This is a matter of considerable importance to Arkansas. Fulbright told the department, since it is one of the largest poultry states in the country.

Fulbright said a large-scale purchase of broiler breeders by the government would be effective in reducing the current oversupply and would add healthful food to school lunch menus.

He was here this weekend to visit Mr. and Mrs. Dale Hunt and their sons, Richard and Travis.

Mrs. L. B. Tonley is attending a Methodist Council on Human Relations this week at S. M. U. in Dallas, Texas.

DOROTHY DIX

Mate-Who-Might-Have-Been Is Pictured in Rosy Glow

By DOROTHY DIX

Dear Dorothy Dix: Seven years ago I had to choose between two men, both handsome, ambitious and with good jobs. Both of them loved me and I was sure I loved them both. However, since I could marry only one, I chose Harvey, chiefly because he had the better sense of humor. He has been a splendid husband in every way, a fine father to our two children, a generous provider every once in a while I get a twinge of doubt about my choice. I've lost track of Rudy, my other suitor, so I really don't know if he would have been a better husband for me or not. I could locate him by doing a bit of detective work. Do you think it would be wise to do this or should I try to strangle my doubts?—Elyra

Dear Elyra: Don't you know that the only perfect mates in the world are those we might have married? The heroes of past romances never grow old, never have a hard day at the office, never make the mistake of eating for lunch what you have carefully cooked for supper, never have a lunch date with an out-of-town salesman who happens to be a lovely career girl, never forget anniversaries and are eternally loving. This is a dream man, remember, who has never existed in reality—thank goodness. He'd be awfully hard to live up to. Human beings make better company and you seem to have made a very wise selection. Park the old romance in moth balls and let him stay there.

Dear Dorothy Dix: I was amused by a recent letter from a 14-year-old who complained that her mother always waits up for her when she comes home from a date. Three years ago, when I was 15, I was similarly troubled. Now I find it loads of fun to come home and find an interested and loving mother ready to hear all about the fun I had. I used to think mother was prying but now I look forward to a good half-hour chin-wag after every date.

Amused Reader Dear A.R.: The reaction of my girl to mom's waiting up for her depends, I think, on the mother's attitude. If a girl is greeted by an irate, sleepy parent who wants to know why you were so late, by it took you so long to say good-night, it can spoil a party. The interested mother, ready to share her daughter's enjoyment for disappointment, for every girl has these occasional fits, is a different story. What is your attitude, Mom, when daughter comes home from a date?

Dear Dorothy Dix: I've been going with Henry since January and we've always gotten along swell. I never had a reason to doubt his love for me. For the past three months he's been sharing an apartment with another man in the used car business and has changed something terrible. I'm told by others that he is running around with other women. Henry says he's not. I know he stays at the lot with this other fellow until late at night but I've never seen him with another

A-BEGINNING—The first nuclear power plant in West Germany is already a landmark at Kahl, where construction goes on next to the domed, windowless reactor tower. Overlooking the Main Valley, the plant will use Uranium 235 to turn steam turbines for electricity.

THE GOLD BATHTUB—A maid tidies up the huge gold-mosaic bathtub in the Royal Apartments at the Quai d'Orsay (French Foreign Ministry Building) in Paris where President Eisenhower will stay during his three-day visit to France, beginning Sept. 2. The Quai d'Orsay was built less than a century ago. The apartments Mr. Eisenhower will occupy were built especially for visiting royalty and were redone for the recent visit of Ethiopian Emperor Haile Selassie.

HE'S GOT TO GO—Peter Zylstra has been informed by Farmington, Mich., police that his six-month-old lion has to go. A city ordinance prohibits keeping of animals other than those normally kept as house pets. He intends to take it up in court.

A WINNER—Five-year-old Danny Slivka showed up with the broadest blossom and the widest smile at a sunflower contest in Cleveland, Ohio. Danny's flower measured 17 1/2 inches across.

SIDE SLIDE—Barbara Cooper went into the Water Ski National Championships at Laconia, N.H., a strong contender for the girls' division title. The 16-year-old, shown practicing in the tricks category, upset Janelle Kirtley in the Southern regional slalom and set a new world mark in jump, 92 feet.

BRONZE GIRL—Bronze expert Mike Purise (on top of ladder) and two other workers examine the statue of Freedom atop the Capitol dome in Washington. After the lady received her first physical examination in nearly 100 years, it was recommended that bronze straps be used to prevent her from coming apart at the seams.

DAYS OF IRON MEN AND WOODEN SHIPS—Workmen put new planking on the oak sister ship of the famed Constitution, the first commissioned warship of the U.S. Navy and frigate, like the Constitution, will be a floating museum of early naval history. Originally called into play against the Barbary pirates, the Constitution destroyed 28 enemy ships during her long career which began Sept. 7, 1797. Contributions from many sources saved her from the scrap heap.

SCHOOL DURING VACATION? THEY LOVE IT!—School should be the least attractive prospect for kids as summer vacation draws to a close. But you couldn't keep them away from class at the Thousand Islands Cowboy School House in Adventure Town, near Alexandria Bay, N.Y. The teacher is a real cowboy—Gordon Peer. His subjects? How to draw, flip and fan a gun, how to spin a rope and how to ride a horse. With lots of fun, Peer shows his attentive pupils how to sit astride a horse while drawing their guns. On the background blackboard are three new "R's," surely more popular than the traditional ones—Ranching, Riding, Roping.

WHERE'S THE GIANT, JACK?—Monstrous green bean plants climbed 30 feet for Mr. and Mrs. Tom Di Nardo of Cleveland, Ohio. And the plants produce beans all the way to the top. The plants are Kentucky Wonder variety which normally grow six to eight feet tall. Said Di Nardo, "We don't know what made them so tall."

Joe Peele entered the stable stall area to the black mouth of the runaway and waited there for enemy. Now, abruptly, a man wheeled into the runway and Joe's challenge hit at him.

"Who is it? Name yourself!" At this moment there existed none for whom Frank Gentile knew an atom of concern. So his answer to Joe Peele's challenge was two quick shots, stabbing through the blackness at Joe's voice. The first missed, but the second hit. Joe Peele staggered and spun and half fell against the inner wall of the runway.

The challenge Joe Peele had thrown carried across the street to the ears of Grady Haskell. Alarmed by the flash of the gun, he swung his rifle into line and let go. The bullet struck Frank Gentile squarely between the shoulders, lifting him, then dropping him, face down and lifeless.

Joe Peele slipped slowly down against that inner wall until he was sitting. The old Greener shot gun across his knees, both barrels loaded, both hammers cocked, but the gun unfired. The swift, deep agony that had struck with Gentile's bullet, was now tuning to an all-over numbness.

Charging up behind Gentile, Vince Tendler caught the flare of the rifle across from the stable. Who held the weapon he did not know or care. As Gentile had, he figured any gun was a hostile one. From a reeking belt gun he threw shot after shot.

A leg went out from under Grady Haskell, as if hit by a club. Another blow smashed into his chest, high up on the right side. These were giant forces to wrack and twist him and leave him flattened in the dust, staring 1957 — on what he termed the expected ruling of the appeals court.

Federal Judge Axel J. Beck, who ordered the Dollarway integration, upheld an Arkansas pupil placement measure used by the school board but ruled the board had misused it to keep Negroes out of Dollarway.

"I believe the courts will eventually permit school boards to use the pupil placement law," said Bennett, who attended yesterday's court session at St. Louis.

"Based on pleadings filed by Dollarway attorney Herschel Fidda, I am optimistic that Dollarway won't become another Little Rock this fall," added the attorney general.

up at the frightened stars, dazed and stupefied with shock. Vince Tendler dodged into the stable runway. He stumbled over the body of Frank Gentile, went to his hands and knees on the straw littered floor. In falling he had dropped his gun, and fell to cursing thickly as he clawed frantically about, trying to locate it.

As if from very far away, Joe Peele heard that cursing. Everything was far away for Joe now — feeling, sound, perception. Yet, somehow, he recognized the voice.

The weight of the Greener as he strove to lift it, was tremendous. It took everything he could master to get it up and level. "Tendler!" he sighed. "You—Tendler!"

Desperate and wild in the misbegotten blackness of the runway, Vince Tendler lunged to his feet. The Greener blared, both barrels. The recoil tore the weapon completely out of Joe Peele's grasp. When the bellowing echoes were gone, Joe listened and listened for more of Tendler's cursing. He could hear none of it. In fact, of a sudden he could hear nothing at all—nothing...

Out in the night, Grady Haskell lay, wondering. Wondering at the strange paralysis which held him so close to the earth and so unable to move. Wondering if it had been a roll of thunder that had just sounded, muffled and far away as though enclosed within walls. Wondering why the light of the stars grew fainter and fainter.

It was the pain which brought him partially out of the mists. It hit him in waves, convulsing, exhausting. Particularly in his chest, where a savage torment stabbed.

People were around him, people with gruff voices and with heavy hands which gripped and hurt. He tried to curse them away from him, but they paid no attention at all.

He caught a clear utterance by some of the voices. "I've got to get that slug. If I don't, he won't have a chance. I've got to go deep, so make sure he don't move."

So the hands held him, pressing him down, and the pain in his chest climbed and climbed until he lost the world in a sea of roaring blackness.

He was a long time in that blackness, before any light came back into it. When it did, it was a queer, strange light, which was never still and somehow, never real, and people with all manner of phantoms and lores, demons and strange devils. This, Grady Haskell decided, was the end.

Came a day, finally, when reality returned. Not a great deal of it, just a thin fragment, and for a brief moment or two he opened his eyes and recognized the ceiling of his room above him, and saw a face bending over him, a ruddy face with shrewd, kindly eyes under a towering shock of white hair. A face that smiled and spoke comforting words.

"How we hung on to you, son — I don't know. But we did, and you're back with us to stay." After which, he slept.

Time returned separated into its comfortable, familiar compartments of night and day. People came back, people he knew. Mrs. Wall, bustling, kind, efficient, and Ruby Peele, very quiet very gentle, took turns feeding him. One day Kinsey shaved him, grooming and seeking gruffly.

"This is a great nuisance you are! Getting yourself shot and afterward throwing fever fits until you were nothing but skin and bone and sewing the seven wits out of all of us. There were times when I felt like takin' a club to you!"

A slow grin touched Haskell's face and his words fell slowly. "You must have been one of those people who held me down. I could take one to you."

87 Workers Laid Off by Reynolds

HOT SPRINGS, Ark. (AP) — Eighty-seven workers at the Jones Mills Plant of Reynolds Metals Co. were laid off last night.

The aluminum plant employs 1,360 persons. A company spokesman said the action was required by a seasonal slump in orders. He added the total layoffs may reach 100.

Plant officials said the reduction would cut production back to a September, 1958 level.

Sentenced to 5 Years on Narcotics Charge

HOT SPRINGS, Ark. (AP) — Worth Gregory, charged with possession of narcotics, pleaded guilty in Garland Circuit Court yesterday and received a sentence of five years in the state penitentiary and a $1,000 fine.

Judge P. E. Dobbs imposed the sentence and said a pending burglary charge against Gregory would be tried later.

Gregory also faces a charge of grand larceny and receiving stolen property, court attaches said.

DeGaulle Will Try Again for Algeria Peace

Foreign News Commentary By ARTHUR HIGBEE United Press International

PARIS (UPI) — All the political indicators point to a fresh effort by Gen. Charles de Gaulle for peace in Algeria.

Some predict de Gaulle may give Algeria self-government with close ties to France and east-west guarantees for the minority of one million Frenchmen in Algeria (a minority often forgotten by those who think immediate, outright independence is the only answer).

De Gaulle, a man who keeps his own counsel, may not go that far. But the time is ripe for a new peace initiative of some kind—and some previously unmovable forces now seem ready to step forward to meet it.

Modifies Public Approach

De Gaulle himself has perceptibly modified his public approach

since he took power 15 months ago. At that time he was referring to Algeria as "French soil, now and forever."

Last fall he indicated that France and Algeria were not one and the same thing: "The future of Algeria... will be built on a double base — its personality and its close solidarity with metropolitan France."

In taking office as President last January he put it more strongly, speaking of "the Algeria of tomorrow, pacified and transformed, developing herself her personality and closely associated with France."

De Gaulle's prime minister, Michel Debre, seems more uncompromising than his chief. "Rebels Less Stiff-Necked"

But slightly more than two weeks ago, in the middle of a characteristically fire - centric speech, he let drop these words: "It is through France and at the side of France that Algeria will find her opportunities and forge her future."

Thus Debre, indicated that Algeria and France are not synonymous — or so politically - key Frenchmen took his words to mean.

The rebels, for their part, have

Negro Rape Gang Members Sought

MITCHELL, Wis. (AP) — Warrants charging rape were issued today against two men named as members of a Negro gang which, police said, preyed on white women found walking alone on dark streets.

Dist. Atty. William J. McCauley said the two men admitted taking part in a wave of rape assaults. The warrants named Herman C. Vignit, 26, who, according to Detective Capt. Leo Wuelfel admitted been less stiff-necked of late. Perhaps Abbas, premier of the Algerian rebel "government in exile," said in an interview with the German weekly "Der Spiegel" that he was ready to negotiate "without posing any prior conditions."

This was a marked change from the one-time rebel insistence that the French must concede Algeria's right to independence before the rebels would talk to them.

These changes of position on both sides may seem minor at first glance. But they are significant, and they came at a time when circumstances pointing to a fresh peace offensive are converging.

led raping 13 women; and Ronald L. Baldwin, 27, who admitted one rape. They were arrested Monday.

McCauley said they wanted to question further two brothers now in prison and a 23-year-old man, also arrested Monday, before any more warrants are issued. Police have refused to identify the trio.

July 14, 1874, the Fifth Constitutional Convention met at Little Rock and adjourned September 4.

Tigers Settle Down to Hard Practices

The Yerger Tiger after a week of practice settle down to the serious work of preparing for their first game September 11 at Camden. The Tigers are coming along fine physically, the big job will be getting them ready mentally, said the coach.

The Tigers have six regulars returning from last year. Henry Reed half back, James McFadden full back, Lee Warren half back, Roosevelt Person tackle, Earl Edwards quarter back, and Richard Beaudon at center. The loss of three good interior linemen through transfer will cause a revamping of line material. Lee Warren, Roosevelt Person, and Charles Shaw are showing up well in early practice. Warren will give speed in the backfield. Person shows power in the line. Charles Shaw, a new prospect, and has been looking good and shows good movements at the position. Beaudon will be a big aid in the line. Reed and McFadden should give running power in the backfield.

It is a little early to predict but the mental picture is ready, by September 11th the Tigers should roll this year. The Tigers will be going through some tough work out for the next two weeks.

Cardinals Slam Dodgers Behind Larry Jackson

Associated Press Sports Writer
You'd think those Los Angeles Dodgers have a mental block when it comes to closing in on the National League lead.

Start in May. They were tied for first in mid-month, then lost five in a row and fell to fourth. It took them more than a month to get within a game of the top on June 28 after winning nine of 10. Then they lost four out of five.

They were only a half-game shy at the first All-Star game break. Then they lost five out of seven. Twelve days later, they were just a half-game behind only to lose three out of four.

They were first by a half-game July 29, then skidded to third. On August 8 they were only a half-game from first. Then they lost three straight.

Now they've missed again. After winning four of five, including two out of three from San Francisco, they had a chance to close within a half-game of the idle first-place Giants Tuesday night.

So what happens? Old nemesis Larry Jackson shut 'em out with a two-hitter and St. Louis was a 3-0 winner, dropping the Dodgers 1½ games behind.

The Giants made hay all around. Philadelphia cracked third-place Milwaukee 5-3, on

TOO GOOD FOR OWN GOOD

...BUT THE FACT THAT HE DIDN'T HAVE ANY ONE LIKE HIMSELF TO HAND OFF TO DO CATCH HIS PASSES!

Porkers Have Tough Work First Day

FAYETTEVILLE, Ark. (AP)—The Arkansas Razorbacks slunged right into full football drills yesterday, working 312 hours on a clear, sunny day.

"It was a good first day's practice," said Coach Frank Broyles.

Don Cardwell's two-run homer in the ninth. That left the Braves three games behind and just a half-game ahead of Pittsburgh's Pirates, whose game with Cincinnati was rained out.

In the American League, Detroit's Jim Bunning blanked Chicago 4-0, cutting the White Sox' edge over rain-ruled Cleveland to five games. New York beat Baltimore 5-4 and Washington defeated Boston 7-4.

Jackson, 23, a right-hander with only a 51-57 record in the majors, upped his career record against the Dodgers to 12-5 while handing them their fifth shutout. He walked two, struck out four for a 12-12 season mark.

The Cards had only four hits, but two were home runs. Ken Boyer's 26th, a second-inning shot that extended his hitting streak to 20 games, ended Johnny Podres' winning string at four. Podres (12-2) also gave up Alex Grammas' third homer in the fourth inning and a double in the sixth by Don Blasingame, who stole third and scored on Grammas' squeeze bunt.

Cardwell, who had managed just one hit in 43 at bats this year, discarded his regular 30-ounce bat, picked up a 40-ounce cannon and tagged Bob Buhl's first pitch for the tie-breaking homer at Milwaukee. His only other home run in the majors came when he was a rookie in '57.

The big right-hander, now 4-7 with his fourth straight victory, allowed only six hits, including Ed Matthews' 25th home run and Leo Adcock's 22nd.

Buhl (11-9) had a two-hit shutout until the sixth, when the last-place Phils scored three runs, two on Gene Freese's triple.

Detroit Blanks Chisox; Yanks Down Baltimore

ED WILKS
Associated Press Sports Writer

Add another chapter to the strange career of Jim Bunning, the lean right-hander who was a surprise 20-game winner two years ago, then pitched a no-hit master piece—and faded.

Tuesday night he shut out Chicago's streaking, first-place White Sox, one of the toughest clubs to blank in the American League, putting them away on three singles and ending their winning string at five as Detroit took a 4-0 victory.

It was Bunning's first shutout in 43 starts since July 20, 1956—the day he no-hit Boston 3-0. It was only the sixth time this season that the White Sox, their edge over rain-ruled Cleveland cut to five games, have been held scoreless.

Ted Kuszewski had two of the White Sox' hits. Luis Aparicio had the other as Bunning, now 14-10, barked his fifth straight victory.

It also was the Tigers' fifth success in a row, matching their best streak of the year, and retained their one-game hold on third place over New York. The Yankees defeated Baltimore 5-6 as Whitey Ford and reliever Ryno Duran combined for a seven-hit shutout.

Washington beat Boston 7-4, with Harmon Killebrew repaying a share of the major league home run lead with his 30th.

In the National League, right-hander Larry Jackson shut out Los Angeles on two hits as St. Louis beat the second-place Dodgers 3-0. Philadelphia defeated third-place Milwaukee 5-3. Pittsburgh and Cincinnati were rained out.

While Bunning continued his spell over the White Sox—he has beaten them four in a row over the past year and nine times out of 10 over five seasons—the Tigers added to their hex over Bob Shaw. The young right-hander, who broke in with Detroit in '57, has beaten every club but the Tigers, Nov. 14-5 for the season, he's 0-3 against Detroit.

The Tigers lagged him for nine of their 12 hits and all their runs in his five innings, giving Bunning the lead he needed in the first inning when Larry Osborn singled. Harvey Kuenn doubled and Al Kaline hit a sacrifice fly. Kuenn was 4-for-5, turning his AL leading average five points to .356.

Five singles gave the Yankees three first-inning runs against Jerry Walker. They cut their other two against Annie Portocarrero in the ninth. Ford (14-7) gave up six hits, giving way in the seventh when the Orioles twice loaded the bases. The Birds had three on again in the ninth before Duran put it away.

Killebrew's homer, tying Cleveland's Rocky Colavito for the lead, gave the Senators a 4-2 lead in the second inning. They nailed it with three runs in the eighth, two on Roy Sievers' double, Clete Paschel (13-10) won it with Tex Clevenger's relief pop. The Nats were out hit 13-3, but collected 11 walks, eight by loser Earl Wilson (1-1) in 3 1-3 innings.

Arkansas Revenue Shows Big Increase

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—The state revenue department reported today that Arkansas revenues total 12,762,491 last month, an increase of some $444,000 over August, 1958.

The department's monthly report showed the increase was provided by a boost in general revenue collections, which support most state agencies and institutions.

Special revenues showed a slight drop. They totaled $3,265,666. The gasoline tax at $3.56c, 280, rose nearly $159,000 while auto license fees slumped by about the same amount to $2,148,114.

Sales taxes, considered by the department a good barometer of business conditions, were up nearly $443,000 to a total of $4,412,118.

Moscow, Photographed This Summer by Donald Davis

Enlarged and Engraved by Hope Star

MR. AND MRS. DONALD DAVIS OF HOPE RETURNED home August 9 from a six-weeks stay in Moscow where Mr. Davis, vice-president of Klipsch & Associates, helped present a demonstration in American high-fidelity sound equipment at the American Exposition.

WHILE IN THE RUSSIAN CAPITAL MR. DAVIS made hundreds of photographs, from which The Star picked the ones on this page for local publication. Mr. Davis turned over the selected negatives, and the news paper made the photo enlargements and the engraved plates.

SECOND DOWN ON LEFT — MOSCOW UNIVERSITY out in the city's Lenin Hills section. The group in the foreground is a Soviet tour party from the south of Russia. The bus driver spoke English, Mr. Davis reported, "and asked us to join the tour. He told us what the leader of the group was saying and we rode the five miles back to the center of town with the crowd on the bus."

THIRD DOWN ON LEFT — HERE IS A FASHION Show in Moscow. It ran twice daily. Mr. Davis' organization supplied the high-fidelity music system which was used to cue and pace the show. The system used Klipsch-licensed speakers.

CENTER AT BOTTOM — THE FARMERS in one of the very few forms of free enterprise in Russia. Each farmer is allowed an acre on which he can do whatever he wishes, the rest of the land being to a collective farm. The farmer then brings his produce from his one acre to sell at this market in the center of Moscow. It was at this market that Vice-President Nixon and Khrushchev had their famous public disagreement.
